Executive Proclamation
State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Parker, the county seat of Turner County, is a progressive business community that is not afraid to take risks and keep the town thriving; and,

Whereas, Parker is utilizing South Dakota's 2010 Initiative goals to become an independent and thriving business community creating jobs, expanding industry, building housing developments, and offering a quality of life second to none; and,

Whereas, As a result of those efforts, Parker was chosen as the 2006 Governor's Community of the Year; and,

Whereas, Turner County held the first county fair in South Dakota in October 1880, and continues to provide one of the state's leading county fairs; and,

Whereas, Now, state government is going on the road to the people of Parker and the surrounding area in a unique program called Capital for a Day; and,

Whereas, Capital for a Day is designed to provide a local forum whereby an exchange of ideas, information, and concerns among the governor, cabinet officials, representatives for the private business sector, local elected officials, special interest groups, and the general public can occur:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 19, 2007, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventeenth Day of September in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seven.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
